During the past summer, her volleyball journey came full circle as she assumed the role of an assistant coach with the Manitoba Provincial Team Program.

“I really do believe that volleyball, or sport in general, is a great place to start in teaching you a little bit about life and things you can apply to life. I’m passionate about volleyball. . . like I am about the most things I do. Like I am about the work I do now. You have to live for a purpose. It’s not always going to be easy, but you can’t give up. It’s not really an option.” – Janis Kelly
